

metaphors so, and both women rushed for the dictionary to substantiate the correctness of their language.—New Haven Register.

The Button Dodge.

He drifted into Phil McGovern's saloon the other evening, whiped his forehead, felt around in his pockets, and said with a pleasant smile:

"Well, as it seems I have just one ten-cent piece left to-day I'll take a drink."

When the four fingers of Antioch nervetangler had been secreted in his remotest recesses the consumer fumbled among his keys and laid something on the counter. As he did so he started and said, with a look of amazement:

"Great Scott! just look at!"

"I see it" said the barkeeper, scornfully regarding the alleged dime. "It's a suspender button. What of it?"

"Well, I didn't look at it before. I just felt it in my pocket, and I'm blamed if it didn't fool me. Ahem! I suppose you'll have to put this drink on ice until to-morrow. I'll drop in and fix it."

"Oh, of course you will. Here, take this," and the cocktail retailer handed over a needle and thread.

"What's that for?"

"Why, for you to sew on that button right now. Otherwise you might make a mistake again this evening somewhere else. Just

In or other t in the

And $100 How
influ

Mar
of thr
for se cent
rim.

chang

A 1,800
and t

A paid butte

ing
and in m
the t

A
prea
cook bens

A
the c How
aggr

our god.

---

A Reckless Government.

---

When Lee invaded Pennsylvania hay was $17 per ton around Chambersburg. One day a Confederate forage-master drove out into the country with his wagons, and halting at a farm-house he asked if they had any hay to sell.

"I might spare two, or three tons," replied the farmer.

"What is it worth?"

"Wal, being as you are enemies to the Government, I shall have to charge you $20 a ton."

"All right, I'll take all you can spare," said the officer, and he loaded up and made out his receipt and ordered on the rebel quartermaster-general for the money.

It was only after the farmer had discovered that he could get nothing that he explained:

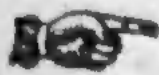

"I don't keer so much for the loss of the hay, but it aggravates me to remember how mighty reckless them rebs was when I tucked on $3 a ton. They didn't even ask me to split the difference."

---

A WOMAN'S INFLUENCE.—The comfort of the average home depends entirely upon the woman who is the mistress of it.—Whether sunshine shall enter the rooms, rebuke of every honorable man—a rebuke that should be given not only in words whenever occasion demands, but by example. Let us aim to speak nothing but the simple truth.

---

 A little girl once took a letter from her mother to an old lady friend. “Many thanks, my child,” she said; “you may tell your mother that you are a good child and a faithful little messenger.” “Thank you, ma’am, and shall I tell her too that I didn’t ask you for ten cents, because mamma told me not to?”

---

 Aesthetic wife: “Dearest, I’ll see that your grave is kept green—but not one of those horrid bright greens. A nice olive gray green with an old bronzed tombstone will look too awfully lovely for anything.”

---

aside, darling?"

For answer she raised her pure, sweet face to his, and placed a large three-for-fifty-cents kiss on his innocent Wabash avenue lips.— Chicago Tribune.

"Guilty, but Drunk."

Capt. Henry's misadventure recalls a story which went the rounds twenty-five or thirty years ago, and is old enough to be new. It illustrates the embarrassment which a glass too much sometimes occasions the best of men. There lived in Georgia, says Col. Bradbury, whom Burton credits with the narrative, a Circuit Judge by the name of Brown, a man of ability, of integrity, and beloved and respected by all the legal profession. But he had one fault. His social qualities would lead him, despite his judgment, into occasional excesses. In traveling the circuit it was his habit, the night before opening court, to get "comfortably corned." In a certain county town, one day, a tough citizen was arraigned on a charge of stealing. After the clerk had read the indictment to him he put the question:

"Guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty, but drunk," answered the prisoner.

"What's that plea?" exclaimed the Judge, who was half dozing in the bench.

"He pleads guilty, but says he was drunk," replied the clerk.

"What's the charge against the man?"

"He is indicted for grand larceny."

"What's the case?"

"May it please your Honor," said the Prosecuting Attorney, "the man is regularly indicted for stealing a large sum from the Columbus Hotel."

"He is, hey? and he pleads"—

"He pleads guilty, but drunk!"

The Judge was now fully aroused.

"Guilty, but drunk? That is a most extraordinary plea. Young man, you are certain you were drunk?"

"Yes, sir."

"Where did you get your liquor?"

"At Stieritt's."

"Mr. Prosecutor," said the Judge, "do the favor to enter a nolle prosequi in that man's case. That liquor of Stieritt's is mean enough to make a man do anything dirty. The court got drunk on it the other night and stole all of Stieritt's spoons! Release the prisoner."

do not propose to do any such thing look with indifference on the sufferings of laborers, those who are striking and who yet continue to work in the factory they may be allowed to earn a living. From their burdens they will not take off a penny.

The only safety for the people is the Republican party out of power.

Discharged for Honesty

The spirit of Pope's lines:

"And more true joy Marcellus exulted Than Cæsar with a Senate at his side" was illustrated by the joyfulness of a country gentleman received the news of his son's loss of a clerkship.

The gentleman had placed the clerk as a merchant, and for a season all was well. But at length the young man married a lady, and as he was folding his hands, he discovered a flaw in the silk, and said: "Madame, I deem it my duty to tell you there is a fracture in the silk." The merchant refused the bargain.

The merchant overheard the clerk, and he reflected a moment he missed him. He reasoned thus with himself: "I have lost a while my affairs are committed to the hands of an honest clerk." But he was too late, and so he wrote to the father to take the boy home; "for," said the father, "I never make a merchant!"

The father, who had been very careful with the strictest care, was surprised and grieved, and burst out and said: "And why will he not be a merchant?"

"Because he has got no more than one or two since he voluntarily gave up his position, that the good father was buying silk, that the good father and so I lost the bargain. I look out for themselves. I cover flaws it will be foolish of their existence."

"And is this all the fault?"

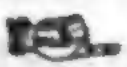

"Yes; he is very well in the world."

"Then I love my son better than you do. Thank you for telling me, I would not have him in your hands for the world."

General Turbot

wants trying, the friend we love may fail to visit us, the letter we expect may not arrive, but if we can preserve our tranquility of soul and of demeanor we shall get through everything creditably.—Exchange.

---

 Dr. John B. Straw, who lives three miles west of this place, recently came to Wytheville, brought a three-and-a-half gallon jug and told one of the merchants to fill it with molasses and tell him the amount it held and the price. When the merchant returned he said: "Five gallons, Doctor; three dollars." The Doctor said: "Well, I don't object to paying three dollars, but I wouldn't have had that valuable jug strained after that fashion for four dollars!"—Wytheville Dispatch.

---

 "Is there such a thing as luck?" asks a correspondent. There is. For instance, if you go home at 2 o'clock in the morning, after promising your wife to be in early, and find her asleep, that's luck, but it isn't to be depended on.

---

balcony, sit Texas Siftings.

 We once s he put his scales see the dial, not but merely as a p
yes," he replied,
ter awhile, when bone, you will ex
low-tail Sunday
hire the finest ba go in procession
the soup bone.
mistaken, that our head; but him with any quire the esteem citizens.—Texas

 An Ohio
chair and wiped Ohio man to sol what in thunde Register.

 Mrs. Va

this suit.

Teste :

Rucker p. q.

JOHN J. BEARD,
Clerk.

NOTICE TO TAKE DEPOSITIONS.

The defendants named in the above order of publication will take notice that I will take the depositions of S. B. Lowry, Jr., and others to be read as evidence in my behalf, at the office of John C. McGlaughlin, in the town of Huntersville, West Virginia, on the 13th day of August, 1882. Should said depositions be commenced and not completed, their commencement and taking will continue from day to day (Sunday excepted) until completed.

S. W. BEARD,

By Counsel.

July 6-4w.

Printer's fee, $10.

A NEW

The Best Made

for the first time, they came out for a procession of Knights Templars going to a funeral, and take off their hats and make respectful signals at him instead of shooting him.

As a matter of seasonable intelligence, it is reported that New Yorkers are making pepper out of old shoes roasted and ground fine. We had supposed that our pepper was pure, but this puts the fiery condiment upon quite another footing.

---

WHAT THRILLED A DARKEY'S SOUL.— Uncle Ike was one day riding a mule, and had a little boy behind him.

"Tell yer what, Uncle Ike, 'possum's mighty good thing," said the boy.

"Yes, 'tis," said Uncle Ike, as the mule struck a trot.

"Specially when yer got lots o' gravy wid him."

Uncle Ike was silent, but seemed restless.

"An' when yer got some roasted 'taters to sop in de gravy," said the boy.

Uncle Ike used his switch with nervous energy, and the mule increased his speed to a gallop.

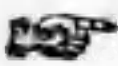

"Yes, Uncle Ike, when de 'possum's right brown, an' de gravy drenin' out an'—

"You shut yer mouf, yer little fool! Yer'll make dis mule run off and kill us boaf."

new imp this secti populatio ductions already tematic Hav valley cousine sessed
Their atic a and e
of plo ing, p
the p land in th
of se prud
the tilla tirp that

pon third, and
 -quarters of a Hasawa, two-won the first
 ond and third ties of Jim the audience
 selling race,
 h mutuals"
 dynamite.
 s here was a ections of ested. The surrounding isitors, who e show of a four-mile delightful
 The racing

tion of England. It states that the decoration conferred upon Arabi Pasha was bestowed at the instance of Dervisch Pasha, in consequence of Arabi Pasha's protestations of fidelity. In conclusion the proclamation exhorts all Egyptians to obey the Khedive.

 Mt. Vernon, Indiana, has been threatened by mobs in consequence of an effort to close the saloons on Sunday and at 11 o'clock every night. About one o'clock Sunday morning the residence of John Paul, the city marshal, was fired by a mob and burned to the ground. The deputy city marshal was terribly beaten by a gang of roughs. The telegraph and telephone were guarded by the mob to prevent communication with the neighboring towns.

MUST BE PAID.—The payment of the poll-tax for 1881 will be one of the pre-requisites for voting in Virginia in November next.

$7.25; medium
 at 4.00a$5.25 p sheep 5a5½c., a
 lb. Lambs at sales 3,800; p

NEW

P Prepa
FO

For prices a Sydenstricker, Sept. 7-tf.

STOCK

A GENER
 of The Springs Comp
 dersigned sto
 more than ou
 said Company.
 Company

no-year-olds, Ban, Pike's
a good race, the favorite
from Pike's
ay. Time,
h of a mile,
ach. Iota, tarters. It caused much er, beating
th Carolus,
ird. Time, the second ant shower atmosphere
The third all ages, at arters were
and Aggie

have a fund which will serve to pay all the poll-taxes on their side of the house. The Democratic Congressional candidates will doubtless see to it that their vote is not cut short by defaulting poll-tax payers.

---

MORE SHEEP KILLED.—We noticed last week the killing by dogs of the sheep of Mr. Gideon Barnhart, and now we learn that on the very next night the dogs attacked the flock of Mr. John G. Gochenour, next neighbor to Mr. Barnhart, and killed 18 out of the 29, and of the remaining 11 some are wounded.—Staunton Spectator.

---

~~For~~ For the present year the cadets at West Point have escaped the annoyance of a disturbing element in their military studies, parades and social relations. Lemuel W. Livingston, the colored young man who applied for admission from Florida, has been re-

Sept. 7-2w

State o

EXECU

WH

To the Comm
eral Coun

WHEREA
of Jud peals of this ending on th
reason of th
the 1st day T. Moore, on cumbent of s
And, when elapse from the Hon C. I to the end
elected;

unity.

Maine was held te that the State the Republican a candidate for out 8,000 ma-al Republican the same ma-
egislature show Senators and h will give the t ballot.

ranks with the spapers in the ular daily is-moth Sunday ng news and e of the Reg-rust, profitaned Pirate :

r corruption District of

dents, Calhoun, Cass, Van Buren and Webster were Secretaries of State, while Benton was a Senator for thirty years. Calhoun died in 1850, Webster in 1852, Benton in 1858, Van Buren in 1862, and Cass in 1866.

---

~~RE~~ John H. Johnston, mayor of Danville, Va., Saturday evening shot John E. Hatcher, chief of police, inflicting a mortal wound.
The parties met casually and Hatcher demanded an apology for a statement of Johnston's that Hatcher had not accounted for fines he had collected. An apology was refused and a scuffle ensued, during which Johnston shot Hatcher. Johnston surrendered himself and was admitted to bail in $5,000.

---

~~RE~~ Wm. H. Vanderbilt, W. W. Corcoran and Leander J. McCormick have just had new scholarships in the University of Virginia named after them. The students under the scholarships are to be nominated by Messrs. Vanderbilt, Corcoran and McCormick, whose gifts to the University have

MARRI

On the —ultimo, by R REUBEN HUGHES to all of Summers county.

In Hinton, on the 10t
Bibb, Mr. WM. H. I SARAA E. HUME, both

On the 5th inst., at Hi V. W. Wheeler, Mr. C and Miss LUCY H. CL bank, Pocahontas count

On Thursday, Sept. residence of the bride's Neff, Mr. ROBERT C county, Va., and Miss Greenbrier county, W.

On the 6th inst., a bride's father, Mr. Mat A. M. Cooper, Mr. A and Miss NANCY A. BE brier county, W, Va.

In a skiff, on the Pot m., Thursday, August 3 man, WM. R. REXROAD
Va., and Miss MATT
Pendleton county, W. V.

Naples, and saw Vesuvius during an eruption. "Have you anything like that in the New World?" was the question of an Italian spectator. "No," replied Jonathan. "but I guess we have a mill-dam that would put it out in five minutes."

Ralph Waldo Emerson said: "The man who has a thousand friends has not a friend to spare. But Ralph never was a newspaper man, supposed to be absolutely under a load of circus tickets."

It is said that the amount of money left in Baltimore by visitors during the Oriole week amounted to about $2 500,000, and still they are Balling for more.

An Iowa woman who got left by a train which afterwards met with an accident sent the conductor a check for $50 to show her gratitude.

A Brooklyn woman has publicly cow-hided her brother-in-law. A spirited wife soon brings her husband's relatives into subjection.

A Hamburg cab driver has become an operatic tenor. Probably hack driving doesn't pay in Hamburg as well as it does in America.

Philadelphia ladies rub quinine on their faces instead of magnesia, but the chemists say that it will soon embitter their lives.

A quid of tobacco in a baker's cake made a small boy very sick, but then the baker had to throw his quid somewhere.

Let every one sweep the drift from his own door, and not busy himself about the frost on his neighbor's tiles.

Young men and maidens, beware of flirtation! It biteth like aquafortis and stingeth like a hornet.

The son of a flautist in Kanawha wants his father to cultivate fish geraniums that will bite.

The poorest of all poor relations—telling a good story badly.

A fly-bliater between the shoulders is a very serious drawback.

Like the law, a race-horse must always take its course.

Messrs. James Humphreys and O. W. Kittinger left during the past few days to fill positions on the Georgia and Alabama railroad, now in course of construction.

Mr. Wm. Wetzel and his sister have returned from a visit to Pocahontas and Randolph counties.

Prof. John Light has returned from Philadelphia.

Miss Maggie E. McWhorter is visiting relatives and friends in Roane county, W. Va.

Major J. C. Alderson and wife were guests of Dr. Webb Monday night, and left for Colorado Tuesday. Mrs. Alderson's health is precarious, and she hopes to find relief in the bracing atmosphere of the Centennial State. Huntington Advertiser.

Capt. John G. Lobban, Democratic nominee for the State Senate, started from Lewisburg yesterday morning on a canvassing tour through Pocahontas county.

Miss Emma Trice, of Louisa C. H., Va., is spending a few weeks in Lewisburg with Mr. S. J. Smith.

Dr. R. C. Bryan and H. S. Rucker, Esq., and wife, of Pocahontas county, are the guests of Dr. Wm. P. Rucker.

Hon. J. Ambler Smith, the Republican candidate for Congress of the Richmond (Va.) District, was in Lewisburg Saturday.

Mr. Henry T. Bell, having accepted a position as book-keeper on a branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, will start tomorrow for Virginia to fill the engagement.

Miss Mary Lee Burke, who has been stopping a few weeks with Mr. Austin Handly, left this week for her home in Goshen, Va., accompanied by Miss Bessie Handly.

Miss Lucy Bell, of Goshen, Va., is the guest of Mr. J. E. Bell, of Lewisburg.

Mr. Jas. T. Rucker and bride and Mr. Edgar P. Rucker started yesterday, and Mr. Oscar McClung last Monday, for Montana Territory, where they expect to make their future homes.

Miss Lucretia Clay, of Lexington, Ky., is paying Mr. O. P. Sydenstricker of Lewisburg a visit of a few weeks.

Mr. Guy La Taurette, of Meadow Bluff, gave us a pleasant call last Saturday.

Mr. Clarence Dickson, son of Mr. Newton Dickson, is one among the number of students enrolled at Washington and Lee University from Monroe county.

Baptist persuasion held that they were hotter than other denominations, and that without much water there was no remission of sins; that the Episcopal Church at one time claimed to be The Church. But thanks to a more liberal spirit, the walls of partition between denominations have fallen down, and Methodists are no longer contemned in the eyes of other Christians; that such men as Spurgeon have shown to the world, that in diversities may be unity and that Episcopacy now entertains far less of high-churchism than formerly. Mr. Rosebro did not want to be understood as an advocate for that sentimental sort of religion that would just as soon belong to one church as another; that esteemed every religious denomination as good as his own. For every man ought to love and uphold his own church with zeal. He simply meant that as there should be no schism in the body between members of the same body so denominational differences and feuds only dishonored the body of Christ, of which churches are all members.

The text from which the evening sermon was taken was in the 27th Chap. of Mathew, and 22nd verse. "Pilate saith unto them, what shall I do with Jesus which is called Christ?" Pilate, said Mr. Rosebro, was like a great many people. He knew and admitted that Jesus was a just man and yet for fear of the people, he compromised his position, and sent his name down through the coming ages as a weak, vacillating man, afraid to come out on the side which his conscience approved. The application was clearly drawn. If sinners will not dispose of this vituperative subject—Jesus of Nazareth—as become fallen creatures who have nothing else of which to rest for salvation, then, they must accept the only other alternative, that of being eternally lost. Both of the sermons were earnest, searching, and convincing. Want of space forbids a more extended report. We have given only an imperfect statement of facts as we remember them, and we just state that this people have been particularly fortunate in the procuring of such a minister as he promises to be. Mr. Rosebro fixed his first regular appointment here Sunday, October 8th, at which time he entered upon his work as Pastor for the Church.

by the native usher in the Consular Court at Shanghai. He was observed to be making an anxious search for some missing object, and on being questioned by the judge, he stated that he was looking for the little book which is give to the witnesses to smell! And this man had been for eighteen years usher of the court.

---

SELLING HONEY.—To sell honey well it should never be taken to market unless engaged. Honey will not stand handling and keep in merchantable order—to have it clean and in good order being the main requisite to succeed in selling it. Take a sample with you and solicit orders, and let it be a fair sample of what you have to sell. Visit the grocers at such a time of day when they are least likely to be busy, so that they can hear what you have to say concerning it. Let your price be reasonable—better sell low at first and raise after your trade is once established. Low prices create a demand which must be filled, no matter what the price.

---

What's the crowd about? queried a stranger as he noticed a stream of visitors going into a fashionable residence. "Oh, it's a silver wedding," obligingly replied his informant. "What's a silver wedding?"

merchants for the secret of their success in life, they would well be astonished at the stories of early hardships, trials and privations they endured. Fathers, mothers; is their not a lesson to be learned from this? Is it not your duty to see that your boys are educated to make their living, so that when they come to man's estate they can bless you for it?—Williamsport Breakfast Table.

---

HOW TO MAKE PRETTY WOMEN.—A celebrated beauty, whose complexion at sixty was fresher than that of our women at thirty, told me her secret this summer, and it was divided into two parts: First, she never used washrag nor towel on her face, but washed it with her hands, rinsing it off with a soft sponge. She used clear water in the morning, but white castile soap or very warm water at night, and, after drying it on a soft towel, she would take a flesh-brush and rub her cheeks, chin and forehead. Second, if she was going to be up late at night, she always slept as many hours in the day as she expected to be awake beyond the usual time. She finished her little sermon on beauty preservation by saying: "Soft water and sound sleep keep off wrinkles and spots, and girls should give more attention to this than they do, for

'With the coming of the crows' feet Is the going of the beaux's feet.' "

---

No man ever felt in the presence of a man the same awe and respect as a woman the murderer out?

"My son,"
"go down to green peas."
"answered

I will tell

r said:
He posi-ocery, and he would ur mother

you are n

don't be-you hear

o young
o jump,
and tit-

y adds:
tly."—
to with-

to vagu-
mean

who, against fearful odds, for the right of local self-government. But I am a Democrat according to my own definition of democracy, which is this: The common sense and common honesty of a free people applied within constitutional limits to the making and administration of the laws. I trust I am as ready as Mr. Crosby to denounce any political organization, whether it be his or mine, which goes into open partnership with the unprincipled firm called by him 'Monopoly, Greed, Trickery & Co.' Yours very truly, J. S. BLACK.

York, Pa., Oct. 21st, 1882.

There is one thing about sewing on buttons. A man may not be able to do the job so quickly as a woman, and he may miss the eye of the button and run the needle into his thumb nine jabs out of ten, but when he gets the task completed, and breaks off the thread with a jerk, you can be pretty sure that button will be on his pantaloons long after they are worn through at the knees.

The little I have seen of this world, and know of the history of mankind, teaches me to look upon the errors of others in sorrow, not in anger. I would fain leave the erring soul of my fellowman with Him from whose hands it came.—Longfellow.

Jenny June says she has worn dresses for over thirty-five years, and in that time she has dealt with two hundred dressmakers who can never see the gates of pearl and gold.—They stole her cloth.

The reason women don't like the telephone better, is because the man at the other end can get in a last word and hang up the instrument before she can reply.

place for work
rest, and that for study.

3. To feel the
the great value
prove it.

4. To culti person.

5. To exerc dealings with

6. To be ot

7. To be a person.

8. To cult

9. To be of others.

10. To de have others

11. To be

12. To b equally ear

13. To c
ways comm

14. To de work and ex

15. To k
work are th

16. To p exercises.

17. To desks durin

not absolu

doing.

18. To c securing a health.

19. To something

20. To b
on all occa

Neuralgia is made of sassafras, oil of gannum, and a half ounce of tincture of capsicum, with half a pint of alcohol. Soak nine yards of red flannel in this mixture, wrap it round the head, and then insert the head in a haystack till death comes to your relief.

TEMPERANCE LESSON.—Last week a Whitehall gentleman viewing the St. Patrick procession in New York, overheard a footman say: "Bedad! the whiskey sellers roides the horses, but the whiskey drinkers goes a-fut."

Gossip is a sort of smoke that comes from the dirty tobacco pipes of those who diffuse it; it proves nothing but the bad taste of the smoker.

It is possible that the world owes every man a living, but his best claim for what is due is that he has earned it.

Keep trouble at arm's length. Never turn a blessing around to see whether it has a dark side to it.

The fire-fly only shines when on the wing; so it is with the mind; when once we rest we darken.

Keep your promise to the letter; be prompt and it will save you much trouble.

Little things console us because little things afflict us.

The old fellow lost his V.

Newspapers the Mightiest Teachers.

Prince Leopold, of England, whose recent marriage to Princess Helen, of Waldeck-Pyrmont, attracted so much attention, is evidently a young man of considerable sense.—He presided at the annual dinner of the Newspaper Press Fund in London, and in proposing the principal toast he spoke of the gentlemen of the press as the watch-dogs of civilization. Now, this was very handsome when we remember that only a few months ago, some of these watch-dogs of civilization were barking very largely against the proposal to pay this young gentleman a generous allowance out of the public treasury of Great Britain.

He truly said that "the direct social and political power of the press is a fact which we are none of us likely to forget for a day."—But he was right in putting even higher the educational power of the press, which he declared to be greatest of all.

Newspapers are the mightiest teachers of mankind to-day. The statesman, the clergyman, the lawyer and university professor find in the press not only an agent which carries their words to millions, but also a monitor which warns the world how much to believe. It is significant, indeed, of the change which has been wrought, to hear a prince tell the people that newspapers not only make them wiser, but keep them free.

relieved
She returned chant, a Danish
ernor V geot he United mourn cendent
and bel
not lon

The
upon h fresh g

THE Arkana intelle
day th
well-k ence,
who h
for ye would ing a togeth sive o
and c sible disper

A a few said ing
Not

and was appointed State Printer, which position she held 17 years. Mary Crouch published a paper in Charleston about the same time, in special opposition to the Stamp Act. She afterward removed her paper to Salem, Mass., and continued its publication there for years after.

---

LITTLE JOHNNY ON DOGS.—One time there was a feller bot a dog of a man in the market, and the dog it was a biter. After it had bit the feller four or five times he threw a close-line over its neck and led it back to the dog man in the market, and he said to the dog man, the feller did, "Ole man, didnt you use to have this dog?" The dog man he loked at the dog, and then thot awhile, and then he said, "Well, yes, I had him about half the time and the other half he had me." Then the feller he was fewrious mad, and he said, "Wot did you sell me such a dog as thisn for?" And the old man he spoke up and sed, "For four dollars and seventy-five cents, loffe money." Then the feller guessed he would go home if the dog was willing. Uncle Ned, which had been in Ind y and everywhere, he says the Mexican dogs don't have no hair on 'em. Dogs howl loudern cats, but cats is more purry and can wok on top of a fense and blow up their tails like a bloon when they want to spit.

---

~~Mr.~~ "I don't care what anybody says," remarked Mrs. Fogg, warmly, "Mr. Bolus is a good doctor and I shall employ him as long as I live." "Very likely," replied Fogg; "I believe it is the same with all his patients."

and fair
the dis
a delic
the sle no mo ous tre

TH with for ch as the durin heirs crops
result For
is th follo culti
The
be to t ricu
farm year may his
The heal
he new way is u trie

she

VA.

Shop in W. Va., of work in

UTING

of fourteen ed I can give
D. DAME.

of Buchu is ment of dis-organs. It own for the ases. 75 cts.

NSBEE,
e, Alderson,

HIRAM SIBLEY & CO., Seedsmen,
Rochester, N. Y. and Chicago, Ill.

MEAT MARKET.

FRESH BEEF always on hand fresh and
salt Pork, Lard, Sausage, Corned Beef, Poultry, Game, Fresh Fish, &c., in season.—
Soliciting a share of your patronage.

I am, &c.

J. O. HAYDEN,

Central Block next door to Capt. Dennis' of flee, Lewisburg, W. Va.
Dec. 11-11

FINE TEAS!

OLONG—Good, 50 cents per pound;
very fine, $1.00 per pound. OPPOW- DER—Good, 50 and 65 cents per pound;
very fine, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 per pound.
FINE MIXED TEA—In packages, at 20 cents per package. At the TEA STORE.

called at the most changes made for Music, Music Bo
furnished at pub

Address, Lev

OUR Hair
lent modie a Hair prepar falling off, con luxuriant grow
bottle, and giv

The Druggis
son, W

TRY our H Condition
mona sale, at any other pro treatment of all kinds. O

EVERYTHING FOR THE

PAVILION AND GARDEN

attention of this order and to protect their interests

JOHN J. BEARD,
Clerk.
Printer's fee, $8.75.

SHOP

N—

RD, W. VA.

Best-class TIN Shop in ier county, W. Va., any kind of work in

I SPOUTING

Experience of fourteen am satisfied I can give J. D. DAME.

Extract of Buchu is the treatment of dis-d Genital organs. It ration known for the dney diseases. 75 cts.
ly by

FOLLANSBEE,
on Bridge, Alderson,

we are the large-
est farmers, seed growers and seed dealers anywhere, hence have greatest facilities for BEST SEEDS.
Grain and Farm Seeds Manual—history, descriptions, culture of best Grains, Grasses, Potatoes, 10 cts.
Catalogue of Flowering Bulbs and Plants for house or garden, FREE.
Spring Catalogue of Field, Garden, Flower and Tree Seeds and Plants, FREE. Sibley's Farmers' Almanac, $500 prize essays on Southern Gardening, 10 cents.
HIRAM SIBLEY & CO., Seedsmen,
Rochester, N. Y. and Chicago, Ill.

MEAT MARKET.

FRESH BEEF always on hand, fresh and
salt Pork, Lard, Sausage, Corned Beef,
Poultry, Game, fresh Fish, &c., in season.—
Soliciting a share of your patronage,
I am yours,

J. G. HAYDEN,
Central Block, next door to Capt. Dennis' of fice, Lewisburg, W. Va.
Dec. 11-tf.

FINE TEAS!

OLONG—Good, 50 cents per pound;
very fine, $1.00 per pound. GUNPOW- DER—Good, 50 and 65 cents per pound;
very fine, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 per pound.
FINE MIXED TEA—In packages, at 20 cents per package. At the

DRUG STORE.

Having had seven years' exper-ness in France, he is able to ins-both in work and prices. Place on Court Street, near Town Ha Nov. 2nd, 1882-3ms.

PIANOS AND O

SATISFACTORILY tuned moderate terms. New different styles) of the best m-cured at the most possible l-changes made for old ones; Music, Music Books, or othefurnished at publishers retail

W. C. I
of B

Address, Lewisburg, W. V.

OUR Hair Restorative.— lent medical combinatioa Hair preparation. It prevfalling off, removes dandruf-luxuriant growth. Try it. bottle, and guaranteed equa-

F. FC

The Druggists, near the son, West Va.

TRY our Horse and Cat-Condition Powders amous sale, and are absol-any other preparation in treatment of all diseases iall kinds. Only 15 cts. a it is time to break up the band.

Love will make a man spit on his hands and take another hold when every other power on earth has backed out and given it up as a bad job.

Love is worth two dollars and a-half a bushel to any man or woman living.—The Drummer.

Golden Rules for the Young.

The person who first sent these rules to be printed says, truly, if any boy or girl thinks it would be hard work to keep so many of them in mind all the time, just think, also, what a happy place it would be at home if you only could:

1. Shut every door after you, and without slamming it.
2. Never shout, run or jump in the house.
3. Never call to persons up stairs or in the next room; if you wish to speak to them, go quietly where they are.
4. Always speak kindly and politely to servants if you would have them do the same to you.
5. When you are told to do, or not to do anything by either parent, never ask why you should or should not do it.
6. Tell of your own faults and misdoings; not of those of your brothers and sisters.
7. Carefully clean the mud or snow off your boots before entering the house.
8. Be prompt at every meal hour.
9. Never sit down at the table or in the parlor with dirty hands or tumbled hair.
10. Never interrupt any conversation, but wait patiently your turn to speak.
11. Never reserve your good manners for company, but be equally polite at home and abroad.
12. Let your first, last and best friend be your mother.

There are three things that the wis-the strongest man, an angel appeared strength, saying the head."

"Was he afraid him?"

"No; the angel lay in his hair, and cut off."

"If I let my more than I can"

"I don't know"

"Are women"

"No."

"But they've"

"Yes; they have"

"A woman she?"

"No; Lot eat"

"Was Samson"

"I don't know"

"But why do I was as old as Samson killed?"

"One thousand"

"He was bad"

"No."

"But when"

"The Lord"

"But the Lord body. Did Samson"

"I suppose"

"He is the he?"

"You are good"

"But I was Samson when"

"I suppose"

"But you you? If he wings, wouldn't"

"Go to you attempt to go shall whip you"

Their language was grammatical, their dress was faultless; one of the males was a clergyman.

---

~~She~~ "Mama, dear," said a girl just in the flush of early womanhood, "I have something to tell you: George has proposed and I have accepted." "My child! I cannot think of you disgracing yourself. George is not a suitable match for you. Besides this would make him one of the family and he would pay no more board." Thus will be seen the incompatibility of a boarding-house girl falling in love with one of the boarders.

the country, and now ambergris of the best quality is worth from $25 to $30 per ounce, with but little on the market.

The Fox and Hare.

A Fox who was gamboling about had the ill luck to fall over a cliff, and as he lay on the ground, unable to rise and suffering great pain, along came a Hare.

"Well," said the Fox as he looked up, "the tables are turned. I am your bitter enemy and have often pursued you with intent to murder, but now I am helpless and can take your revenge."

"Do you expect me to kill you?"

"Naturally I do, and I ask the favor that you kill me with a club instead of slowly torturing me to death by singing: "Only a Pansy Blossom."

But the Hare determined to heap coals of fire on his head and prove her own forgiving spirit. She therefore gave him water and food and nursed him until he was quite able to take care of himself. The very next day after they separated the Hare was crossing a field when she found herself pursued by a Fox.— After running a long distance she was overtaken, and as she was knocked over she recognized in her assailant the very Fox whose life she had saved.

"Why, you are the Fox whom I nursed?" she cried out.

"Is that so?"

"Of course it is! How could you fail to recognize me!"

"Well, fools look so much alike that it is hard to tell who from who. For fear of making a mistake I shall eat you and let the next one go."

"Did the other
"He helped
"Did the boy calf?"

"No, he was
"The calf didn't it?"

"Yes, he did
treated him right

"An' when want another

"I don't know

"Was it a

"The Bible
it was."

"Did the killed?"

"That'll do

"If I was

would you know

"No."

"Why would kill a calf and you'd spank

"It's time

"Did the

The enter howl, heard

mostest corn effort to avoid

Arkansas T

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

...session yesterday, Judge J. M. Mc-
...nis, Sam'l P. Haw-
...low have returned
...t.

...physr.
...dent :
...the iron horse is

...compromised their
...ties for the use of

...were the diversion
...last week.

...g at the Metho-
...Miss Sallie Car-
...ful affairs.

...returned from his

...g improvements
...sed from Mr. A.
...ing a restaurant.

...quite interesting
...ast." They are

...occupied bal-
...Depot porch,)

...ne been confined
...abscess, is out

...again on our
...obington, D. C.

...Tuesday. The
...Miss Claiborne

...the pupils, gave

...which proved

...plays were too

...and were well

...made were also

...deserve great
...of their ardu-

...you. Price, $8 at the Foundry; pointle, 35 cents, or three for a dollar—of better quality than any sold in this market. 3w.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE

—OF—

POCAHONTAS LANDS!

PURSUANT to a decree of the Circuit Court of Pocahontas county, rendered at the October term, 1882, in the chancery cause of William D. Moore's administrator vs. Wm. D. Moore's heirs and als., the undersigned Special Commissioner, will proceed, in front of the Court-house door of said county, on to sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, the following tract of land, containing about 200 acres, lying in the dry fork of Elk River in said county, near or adjoining the lands of Joseph C. Gay and others, subject to the widow's dower in 71 acres, being the same land upon which the said Wm. D. Moore lived prior to his death. This is an elegant piece of land, is conveniently situated, and in the midst of one of the finest grass sections of the county.

Monday, the 2nd day April, 1882,

TERMS:

Cash in hand sufficient to pay cost of suit and sale, and for the residue bonds in equal amounts, falling due respectively in nine, eighteen and twenty-seven months from day of sale, with good personal security, said bonds to bear interest from date—a lien to be retained as ultimate security.

R. S. TURK,
Special Commissioner.

I, John J. Beard, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Pocahontas county, W. Va., do certify that bond with approved security has been given by the Commissioner in the above cause.—Given under my hand, this 26th day of February, 1883.

JOHN J. BEARD,
Clerk.

Mar. 1-4w.

Printer's fee, $10.00.

FOR RENT.

THE Livery and Feed Stable connected with the Ronceverte Hotel is for rent upon easy terms, to a responsible party. Apply to

Feb. 22-46.

G. D. RICHARDSON,
Ronceverte, W. Va.

A NY quantity of Saddles, Harness, Saddle

HAY

I have a large line Hogshead and Teiro for sale cheap. Also story frame Building Engine and Boilers Belting, &c., all for purposes, for sale at line of Splitters Sha

Manuf

all kinds of Hoops track to two doors on side main Building ever offered to any this or any other M

McComick Binders Mowers, Hagerston Wheat and

Fertiliz

The Greenbrier Independent.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THURSDAY, MARCH 15TH, 1883.

Locals—Hereafter twenty cents per line will be charged for Local notices for each insertion. Eight words may be estimated to a line. This charge will be strictly adhered to.

And Special notices, in small type immediately preceding marriages and deaths, will be inserted at the rate of 15 cents per line.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS—Political notices, articles advocating candidates for office and announcements of candidates, will be charged for each insertion.

MR. C. H. HARES' sale of personal property will take place to-morrow, on his farm, in the Richlands.

THE first Saturday in April, (the 7th,) will be the day for the annual election of Corporation officers for the town of Lewisburg.

FLEEDED OUT OF $600.—Groves was returning from last week, he was robbed by card monte men, on the boat between Cincinnati and Louisville. When the boat arrived, Groves had the party arrested in getting back a party paying his attorney, short $460. Mr. Groves is a most respected citizen that he met with the County Chronicle.

Meade
Editor Greenbrier
Mr. C. O. White
B. F. Hern, left ton and Cabell large contracts

Bath county, Va.

Persons who have never known the value of Pocahontas lands, have recently had their intellects brightened on this subject, and titles to thousands of acres are coming in and being recorded.

Wolves have been quite destructive on sheep about Frost. Gilmore Sharp had eleven killed one night.

Rev. Wm. T. Price, now residing in Rockingham county, Va., has accepted a call to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. McCown. Mr. Price will occupy the pulpits at Huntersville and Marlin's Bottom on alternate Sundays, and reside at the latter place.

---

Shot His Wife's Paramour.

About five months ago a young man about 37 years old, from Fauquier county, Va., by the name of Thomas Smith, came to that portion of Summers county contiguous to Al-

supposed case of s in a prominent ph
nounced a bad cold young man's lungs and break out in p lescent, and it is Edray are worse s

On Saturday nig office at Marlin's burned. Mr. App absent from the o originated betwe burned a lot of money. Mr. App
ter's tools and a n
ing his loss, as he
I learn that there importance in the
he does not know
says there is a "bu

Another incide o'clock on Friday
caused perhaps s

make him respected. Talent is wealth; tact is ready money. For all the practical purposes of life; tact carries it against talent in the proportion of ten to one.

Grains of Gold.

The less men think the more they talk.

Women are most perfect when most womanly.

Those wounds heal ill that men do give themselves.

Fear invites danger; concealed cowards insult known ones.

It is easier to suppress the first desire than to satisfy all that follow it.

Some temptations come to the industrious, but all temptations attack the idle.

Distinction is not in being heard of far and wide, but in being solid, straightforward and loving the right.

Precarious and uncertain gains are usually as speedily dissipated. Try, if possible, to save a portion of whatever you receive, to lay by.

Good qualities, though hidden, become unveiled, and shine throughout the world. The flower of jasmine, although dried up, sends a sweet fragrance everywhere.

Appearances seldom ought to determine our judgment. When the honor, probity or reputation of some one is the matter in question, it ought not to be pronounced without a thorough investigation of the subject; and in that case suspicions are never certainties.

Why should you celebrate Washington's birth-day more than mine?" asked a a mockery to tired doing Such a m on earth.

earn a doll steak with and eat it got wheels
more enjoy fore. Tha no doubt smells fro knows no cat that s play short bottles.
not know there we fellows,
there wo
lington E

HE'LL
one of tered a after a propriet
"Me
ing for clocks,
settle th
"Wel
"The
a clock
wind it clock w op."
"Yo
"Is

of lazy young center tools, ment.—Bar-

of toil from the State en-
w days ago,
said to the

een disput-
f eight-day
o have you

lay clock is n forget to say it's a to wind it

ou in this eedn't do

in practical business, we find that they were men who sought the truth and followed it; that they prevailed not by charlatantry or puffery, but by adding actual values to the world's store of learning and of wealth.

---

A Dog and his Tail fell into a Dispute as to which should Wag the Other. An itinerant Wasp passing that way, casually Remarked: "Speaking of Tails reminds me that I Possess one which May possibly be Influential enough to Wag you Both." This fable Teaches us that Ten cents worth of Dynamite is a bigger man than a Church Steeple.

---

A Nebraska City young man borrowed money from a woman to pay for a license to marry her daughter, and then used the license to marry another girl.

---

The sting of a bee is only one thirty-second of an inch long. It is your imagination that makes it seem as long as a hoe rd, the charts,

ool is furnished,
ing appearance
yet seen in the
a worker, and athusiasm can t by her ex-

ection of offi-ected Presi-e-President,

primary pu-
rs old, then od of teach-
ce method, n the ease
dren read.
riting was ent paper the Pub-this pa-essary to

was fur-tendent.

he had nd pat-
of $10,

ol with liversal library.

our for need-atures

ch the
a just erate

wight sat-
dence

Uncle D. P. Olive, now a prosperous store-keeper in a prosperous Iowa village, once practiced law in Ohio. Being met by an old acquaintance, he was asked for all the particulars of his giving up the profession.

"Didn't it agree with your health?"

"Oh, yes," answered Uncle David.

"Didn't it pay?"

"First-rate."

"Meet with sufficient favor from the courts?"

"All I could ask."

"Then what was it compelled you to quit it?"

"Well, I'll tell you—I was too honest."

A loud laugh from the by-standers aroused Uncle David into earnestness, and he repeated the strange statement, and nailed it to his shop counter with his huge fist. But his cross-questioner went on:

"When did you find this out?"

"In my very last case."

"What was that?"

"One in which I was retained to prosecute a neighbor for killing a dog."

"And he was acquitted? So you lost the case, and gave up your profession discouraged?"

"No; he was convicted."

"Then he was guilty?"

"No; he was innocent."

"But didn't the evidence prove his guilt?"

"Certainly it did."

"Then why do you say he was innocent?"

"Because I had killed the dog myself a few nights before for trespassing on my poultry, and I came to the conclusion that any business that would aid a man to convict a neighbor of his own crimes wasn't the business for me, so I gave it up."—Harper's Magazine.

Among the papers left behind him by a German physician who died a few weeks ago is one containing notes of certain conclusions he had arrived at during a professional experience of more than forty years. In one of these notes he expresses an opinion that at least a third

STORI

are now more amply Cust

GO

in their line than and well

FALL AND

are now being open invite the

P U E

With thanks for attention to business continuance of the our

PATENT T

Re

Nov. 15th. 1882.

PIANOS A

SATISFACTORIL
moderate terms,
different styles) of the eured at the most po
changes made for o
Music, Music Books,
furnished at publisher

Address, Lewisbur

some very pretty These, with the board, the charts,
school is furnished,
easing appearance
yet seen in the
is a worker, and enthusiasm can profit by her ex-

election of offi-e-elected Presi-Vice-President,
ary.

of primary pu-
years old, then method of teach-
ntence method,
from the ease
children read.
in writing was cellent paper

ing in the Pub-
ublish this pa-
ot necessary to bject was fur-
uperintendent,
d that he had chers and pate sum of $10, e school with r's Universal chool library.

one hour for perhaps, need-
being features to which the rove was just conquerate
as we might water. Sulparabundance
that would

Too Honest to Practice Law.

Uncle D. P. Olive, now a prosperous store-keeper in a prosperous Iowa village, once practiced law in Ohio. Being met by an old acquaintance, he was asked for all the particulars of his giving up the profession.

"Didn't it agree with your health?"

"Oh, yes," answered Uncle David.

"Didn't it pay?"

"First-rate."

"Meet with sufficient favor from the courts?"

"All I could ask."

"Then what was it compelled you to quit it?"

"Well, I'll tell you—I was too honest."

A loud laugh from the by-standers aroused Uncle David into earnestness, and he repeated the strange statement, and nailed it to his shop counter with his huge fist. But his cross-questioner went on:

"When did you find this out?"

"In my very last case."

"What was that?"

"One in which I was retained to prosecute a neighbor for killing a dog."

"And he was acquitted? So you lost the case, and gave up your profession discouraged?"

"No; he was convicted."

"Then he was guilty?"

"No; he was innocent."

"But didn't the evidence prove his guilt?"

"Certainly it did."

"Then why do you say he was innocent?"

"Because I had killed the dog myself a few nights before for trespassing on my poultry, and I came to the conclusion that any business that would aid a man to convict a neighbor of his own crimes wasn't the business for me, so I gave it up."—Harper's Magazine.

Among the papers left behind him by a German physician who died a few weeks ago is one containing notes of certain conclusions he had arrived at during a professional experience of more than forty years. In one of these notes he expresses an opinion that at least a third of the illnesses of the patients who sought his advice were purely imaginary. He found it not only the SIZE of

STORE

are now more amply pre-Customer

COC

in their line than ever and well select

FALL AND W

are now being opened, Invite the att

PUB

With thanks for pas-
attention to business, continuance of the sam
our

PATENT TR

Res

Nov. 15th. 1882.

PIANOS A

SATISFACTORILY
moderate terms.
different styles) of the
eured at the most po
changes made for ol Music, Music Books,
furnished at publisher

Address, Lewisbur

CLARK

any others.
 taken great interest in succeeded in securing of the people. The ally decorated with d some very pretty
 s. These, with the board, the charts,
 school is furnished,
 pleasing appearance
 ave yet seen in the e is a worker, and ad enthusiasm can profit by her ex-
 he election of offire-elected Presi-Vice-President,
 retary.
 ss of primary pu-
 x years old, then
 method of teach-
 sentence method,
 ng from the ease
 he children read.
 cy in writing was excellent paper ining in the Pub-

 o publish this pa-
 not necessary to subject was fur-Superintendent. said that he had teachers and pat-
 the sum of $10,
 the school with ber's Universal
 a school library.
 ed one hour for
 , perhaps, need-
 pleasing features
 mer to which the trove was just nd to construct

I submit this plan, not because I think it is the best, but hoping that it may reach some inquiring mind in time to help in laying a better plan wherein many may be benefitted.

A. J. L.

Too Honest to Practice Law.

Uncle D. P. Olive, now a prosperous storekeeper in a prosperous Iowa village, once practiced law in Ohio. Being met by an old acquaintance, he was asked for all the particulars of his giving up the profession.

"Didn't it agree with your health?"

"Oh, yes," answered Uncle David.

"Didn't it pay?"

"First-rate."

"Meet with sufficient favor from the courts?"

"All I could ask."

"Then what was it compelled you to quit it?"

"Well, I'll tell you—I was too honest."

A loud laugh from the by-standers aroused Uncle David into earnestness, and he repeated the strange statement, and nailed it to his shop counter with his huge fist. But his cross-questioner went on:

"When did you find this out?"

"In my very last case."

"What was that?"

"One in which I was retained to prosecute a neighbor for killing a dog."

"And he was acquitted? So you lost the case, and gave up your profession discouraged?"

"No; he was convicted."

"Then he was guilty?"

"No; he was innocent."

"But didn't the evidence prove his guilt?"

"Certainly it did."

"Then why do you say he was innocent?"

"Because I had killed the dog myself a few nights before for trespassing on my poultry, and I came to the conclusion that any business that would aid a man to convict a neighbor of his own crimes wasn't the business for me, so I gave it up."—Harper's Magazine.

Among the papers left behind him by a German physician who died a few weeks ago is one containing notes of certain con-

D. J. FOR

HAVING GREAT
 the SIZE

STORE

are now more amply Custom

GO

in their line than ev
 and well se

FALL AND W

are now being opene invite the a

PUE

With thanks for p
 attention to busines
 continuance of the sa our

PATENT TE

Re

Nov. 15th. 1882.

PIANOS A

SATISFACTORIL
 moderate terms
 different styles) of th cured at the most p
 changes made for o
 Music, Music Books
 furnished at publish

Also the following in the Ronceverte post-office: G. H. C. Oiler, Thos. H. McDonald, G. H. Walker, John Sun, Jno. W. Garth, G. W. McMahon, Dawmon Kenney, Jacob Corbitt (3), Lewis F. Deersmitt, Jas. Rand and Miss Ida Hicks.

H. H. Hardesty & Co. propose to compile and publish an accurate history of Greenbrier county from the time of the Red Man down to the present year 1883, and incorporate the same in their valuable work, the Historical and Geographical Encyclopædia. This history will be prepared by competent historians, who will get the facts and data from the best and most authentic sources. These will embrace the county's early settlement and growth, its pioneers, its improvements, its topographical features, its resources, &c., a history sparkling with scene and incident, which, if not recorded and preserved in some permanent form, will be lost to the descendants of the men and women who have played prominent parts in the history of the Virginias. This valuable work will be so localized and adapted to our county as to make it peculiarly valuable to our people. Several of their men are at present working in our county gathering pioneer recollections.— carry and the Constable and his pri ceeded on their way. When with hundred yards of the officer's hor dropped a little to the rear and Hobbs a blow with a four-pound knocking him senseless and makin escape. After some time Mr. Hob consciousness and made his way Manser was sent for and dressed which proved to be a very dan painful one on the back of the constable has not been fit for du nothing has been heard from the Derico is quite a youth, and th him to be a bold, bad character not hesitate at murder to accom

On Tuesday morning, betw o'clock, a two-story frame hou upper Hinton, and occupied b D. Wise and G. W. Boley, wa fire. The fire is thought to b in the upper part of the buildi Mr. Wise's family, as Mrs. W. by the room being full of s once gave the alarm and arou of the house, but the structu the flames gained such headw was soon beyond control, and Mr. Wise lost all of his house furniture except a bureau a chine. Mr. Boley, who occ part of the house, succeeded ple of beds and a few chair his household goods being sustains a heavy loss. The families lost all their cloth they had on. Mr. Wise, w ductor on the Chesapeake was absent at the time of t charge of his duty on the den destruction of all his b a heavy loss to him. The by Mr. J. Hinton, and was The two houses adjoining

Rules for Keepers of Sheep.

1, Keep sheep dry under foot with litter.— This is even more necessary than roofing them. Never let them stand or lie in mud or water.

2, Take up lamb bucks early in summer, and keep them until December following; when they may be turned out.

3, Count every day.

4, Begin graining with the greatest care, and use small quantities at first.

5, If a ewe loses her lamb milk her daily for a few days, and mix a little alum with her salt.

6, Let no hogs eat with the sheep in the spring, by any means.

7, Give the lambs a little mill-feed in time of weaning.

8, Never frighten sheep if possible to avoid it.

9, Sow rye for weak ones in cold weather, if you can.

10, Separate all weak, thin or sick ones from those strong in the fall, and give them special care.

11, If any sheep is hurt catch it at once and wash the wound, and if it is fly-time apply spirits of turpentine daily, and always wash with something healing. If a limb is broken bind it with splinters tightly, loosening as the limb swells.

12, Keep a number of good bells on the sheep.

13, Never let the sheep spoil wool with chaff or burs.

14, Cut tag-locks in early spring.

15, For scours give pulverized alum in

A recent interesting instance remember our key lump tle. The me and it nearly pulse of dis away out of tracted until others it we most intense bottled sug the solution lem afresh, one way as neck and catch it as

Under ture it by against the to the pur tie itself in Fits of the alternate idea seem new series

Nothing light was olives fall the fruit monkeys and rease a Humb paws, he noise sm which he mouth, tion.

10. Separate all weak, thin or sick ones from those strong in the fall, and give them special care.

11. If any sheep is hurt catch it at once and wash the wound, and if it is fly-time apply spirits of turpentine daily, and always wash with something healing. If a limb is broken bind it with splinters tightly, loosening as the limb swells.

12. Keep a number of good bells on the sheep.

13. Never let the sheep spoil wool with chaff or burs.

14. Cut tag-locks in early spring.

15. For scours give pulverized alum in wheat bran; prevent by taking great care in changing dry for green food.

16. If one is lame examine the foot, clean out between the hoofs, pare the hoof if unsound, and apply tobacco with blue vitriol boiled in a little water.

17. Shear at once any sheep commencing to shed its wool, unless the weather is too severe, and shave carefully the pelt of any that die.

18. Have at least one good work by you to refer to. This will be money in your pocket.

---

THE STRONGEST MAN.—Professor R. A. Proctor found at Reno, Nev., a man who claims to be the strongest man in the world. His name is Angela Cardella. He is an Italian, aged 38, and stands five feet ten inches in height, weighing 138 pounds. His strength was born with him, for he had no athletic training. He differs from other men chiefly in his osseous structure. Although not of unusual size, his spinal column is double the idea seemed to new series of

Nothing at light was sh
olives falling
the fruit roll
monkeyship
and reasoned
a Humboldt paws, he br
noise smash
which he c mouth, and tion.

CARLYLE
light is th
the public They show and neglec
jealous sh carried o Lady As this shou
of Englis and Milt their do and Dick painful body sue Carlyle
his wife gifts and was crue
to do t nied all but unt
was not causes her deat remore

Riding a Mule.

I have spoken to Judge Farrar. His ancestors owned the land near Dutch Gap, and his wife was a Miss Bullock, of Lynchburg. Nearly every Southerner I meet out here is more or less related to Virginia. The Judge, as I have intimated, is charming company. Among the good things he told us was the story of a friend of his who attempted one night to drive a stray mule out of his yard. Arrayed in that elongated garment which boys abhor and men delight in, he arose from his bed, descended to the yard, opened wide the front gate, and began to "shoo" the mule, his wife looking on from the chamber window. Mr. Mule declined to be "shooed." His wife began to laugh.

Vexed by the mule's mulishness and his wife's laughter, the good man crept softly up to the animal, and with a sudden leap, mounted him, expecting to ride him promptly out of the yard. But the astonished mule took off around the house, the night-shirt flapping and cracking in the cold air. The faster the mule went the louder the shirt cracked, and the louder it cracked the faster he went. Around and around and around they went, the shirt flapping and cracking and splitting, the man clinging for dear life with his legs and vainly trying to hold him back by the mane—his wife screaming with

cent., in N
about 19

The C pany have their roll
steadily between they ha
coaches,
mail an cars an number and new

In the lowing

TE

The compan ago at near th
The C have fo
this fie
in a tu
day and works

FIRE

This John coal a above cline holding moun loaded moun

nd re-
it.

Round the house he went like lightning—then he hove in sight again.

He was gone again, but the next moment he was back.

"Think you could open a bottle of porter with your teeth, if I would throw it to you?"

He vanished like ■ meteor.

"Got ■ cold goose in the sideboard;
couldn't you carve it with one hand and hold on with the other?"

"Mary," cried out the exasperated man,
"you are the most infernal, unfeeling fool on earth, and if you don't come down and stop this accursed mule, I'll be dead in five minutes. I'm raw as a beefsteak now."— She might as well have tried to stop a whirlwind, for by this time the shirt was split up to the neck in ribands about three inches wide, and the mule, mad with fright and the cracking of ribands, was going at the rate of a tornado. Finally the mule fainted and the man fell to one side, helpless as a little child and sore all over as a boil. His wife with difficulty logged him into the house, where he lay for weeks. A circle of lint resembling a small milky way described the race-course around the house. At intervals during the remainder of his natural life the mule was subject to fits of vertigo, and could neither be ridden nor driven until they put goggles of darkened glass upon him; for the sight of anything white threw him into convulsions and set him madly racing again.

ROADS AND MUD.—"The farming com-

Cooper
a large ment of ments
Their finely seam inches receive coal.

THE

A
opened Stone built work
Mr.
many he di high an of side
the four splen
ers re
At th open come now

Th
with they
over

He never called Eve up from the cellar to put away his slippers. Not he. When he took them off he put them under the fig tree beside his Sunday boots. In short he did not think she was specially created for the purpose of waiting upon him, and he wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man to lighten a wife's cares a little. That's the reason Eve did not need a hired girl, and with it is the reason her descendants did.

---

A LITTLE MULE'S EXPRESSION.—A mule was trying to pull a load of lumber through the slough of mud at the James Street Bridge this morning. The load was large, the mule was small and the mud was deep. The driver encouraged the mule with prayers and gentle flatteries. He made a first effort, and then leaned against the breeching and rested. The audience on the Bridge lowered their umbrellas and held their breaths, but the driver simply said that when that mule's eye wore the expression it was then wearing, which to the front row on the Bridge seemed an expression of firmness, he would sooner think of asking the rocks of Gibraltar to move than to ask that mule to do something which he did not want to do.—A substitute for the mule was brought.—Syracuse Herald.

---

A handfull of common sense is worth more than a bushel of learning.

in this w
to fill.
with any What th
the wor have a they w ers wo could presen
thing is a h
can a beaut their while soon they anyt pass tion
alwa
pass plac
The
brin

wife give of le a le win

bushels Clover
ed.

ished 1840.
ELEBRATED DFORD" BLE MILL.
SEAT IN FEED, L MACHINERY.
descriptive Circon-
— plainly
DFORD & CO.
W. Second St.,
NATL O.

MILLS, VIRGINIA.
ed Building
gles, Laths, lings at any counties.

A. PRESTON

AW,
G, W. VA.
Greenbrier

GEON,
W. VA., the citizens ention to all

GEON,
W. VA., the citizens ention to all

GEON, Hillsboro',
ices to the rior on n-
ly.

as a bottle
nd Cherry

"The deuce!" thought Burger, as he walked away. "If I were not a literary man, I would turn peddler or publisher; there is nothing so profitable as selling the learning or wit of others."—Detroit Free Press.

The Mile and the Knot.

The confusion in the public mind, and reflected most clearly in the writings of popular authors in regard to the difference between the mile and the knot, is astonishing. In the same article the knot and the mile is repeatedly compared — though they were synonymous terms. It is very difficult in regard to English steamers to find out what speed has really been made. A mile and a knot are by no means the same thing. A mile is less than 87 per cent. of a knot.— Three and one-half miles are equal, within a very small fraction, to three knots. The knot is 6082.66 feet in length. The statute mile is 5280 feet. The result of this difference is that the speed in miles per hour is always considerably larger than when stated in knots, and if a person forgets this and states a speed as so many knots when it was really so many miles, he may be giving figures verging on the incredible. When we hear parties say that such a vessel is capable of making 20 knots per hour we usually take the statement with a very large grain of salt, 20 knots is 23.04 miles per hour, a speed which very few vessels have made, and it is doubted by some who have had the best opportunity for making actual measurements whether any vessel has ever made 25 miles in 60 minutes. What, then, shall we think of a person who reports that some of the English torpedo boats have made as high as 24 or 25 knots? Twenty-four knots are over 27½ miles per hour, and twenty-five knots are upward of 28½ miles an hour.

Husband (2 a. m., after a curtain lecture)—"Well, all I've got to say is if you are a person of refinement and good breeding you ought to be above talking to a drunken fellow warm up the back town Pokydemus White, of de anti-room. De ge ught on top of a freight wisitin' de Norf am to lektur' on 'How to offered to diliber it be of seventy-five cents.

fur any sort of a lect subject. But I has doan' want it. It am bin economizin' radde
of an obercoat he has chain. In place of seems to prefer one whiskey. While de
all run over, he w'a his chin. While his fore and behind, he a dat probably cost economize am to not 'ceptin' de offe de moas' of us do no stranger wid a an' teach us. Wh keeps fo' chill'en
Sunday suit, eats
doan' owe de bus salary of $6 per de economy bizne
it kin be worked."

A MINISTER
One sultry Sunda
ing away at his majority of whic
of all his effort
"Wake up here
ing to you who back." It wou next day a del parsonage and package contain saying that it w
reduced to half
plied, after acc
that he was n
shirt, although back; he wor him.—Rome (

your love is hopeless. Mamma is determined, father is set, and it isn't right for me to encourage your attention. I can be a sister to you, and nothing more. Therefore you needn't buy me any valentine, or give me any more gum."

---

167 A New York man who sued a railroad for killing his cow has lost his case.—The railroad company proved by seventeen witnesses that the schedule of the road was posted on a fence right where the cow could see it, and besides that, the engineer winked four times at it, but the reckless animal would not take the hint.—Pittsburg Telegraph.

---

168 That was a very sensible police judge who, in dismissing a case a few days since in St. Joseph, Mo., said: "I shall dismiss every case of woman-insulting where it can be shown that the woman first flirted with the accused."

---

169 "Let me make the songs of a nation, and I care not who makes its laws." Who would not rather be to-day the author of "Home, Sweet Home," than the author—of the tariff bill, for instance?—Boston Globe.

---

170 An editor says his ancestors have been in the habit of living a hundred years. His opponent responds by saying that "that was before the introduction of capital punishment."

---

171 "Ella is better looking," remarked Mrs. Brown, with a smirk, "but Lucy will get married first." "Yes," chimed in her husband, "gemme Luci-fer matches every time."

---

172 Women do not marry for love, or money, or dry goods. They marry in the hope that they may have spring house-cleaning to do.

---

173 A French investigator has found that, in proportion to its size, a bee can pull thirty and recently and n expressed by our

ent. added by the
the valuation of ounty made by
I. G. Rader, ap-ent act of 1881.
ands was made
ur most intelli-
emselves, well throughout the
the lands and r value. The
I Rader put we believe, of is as great as isment made

do not bes means to or to impose ple, but the valuation of crease our oportion to e informed
is in for several of the onty. irre-
eld at the 21st inst.,
as the Board of are test-
sent it in farmers

less ex-ere

and that there is no need of the high rate of duty that is now leyied on imported iron, if the protection of American labor is all it is done for.

J. C. W.

THE FIRST OF THE PHOENIX PARK EXE-CUTIONS.—Joe Brady, who, on the 6th of May, 1882, killed Lord Frederick Canvendish in Phoenix Park, acting under the orders of a secret society of which he was a member, was hanged Monday morning inside the prison yard at Dublin. A vast crowd of people, estimated to number ten thousand persons, gathered outside the prison yard to await the hoisting of the black flag that would announce that Brady had paid the penalty of his crime.
At 8:03 a. m., the flag was hoisted; the people uncovered their heads, it is said, at the moment of its appearance. There was no disturbance, as there was a strong force of cavalry, infantry and police present to preserve order. It had been rumored that Brady's friends, after the hanging, would endeavor to excite a demonstration by parading an empty hearse through the city, and after the black flag was put up a hearse, followed by a coach with mourners, did appear on the scene, but was immediately warned away by the police. Brady died without making any statement in regard to the matter which had brought him to the scaffold. The next member of the "Invincibles" to be hanged is Daniel Curley, whose execution is fixed for May 18th. The execution of Michael Fagan is set for the 28th of May, and Timothy Kelly for the 9th of June.

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY.— In addition to the Lee memorial ceremonies at at 5.50a$5.87½ per ceipts 10,000; w clipped 3a6c., per 5,000; prices, 10a11

NEW AD

SHORT WOOD
Mill at a price
Large two-horse
one-horse load at

NOTICE

To the Creditors
tors of Wm.

IN pursuance of Court of the
in a cause therein
estate of Thomas
ment of his debts
your claims again
Wm. P. Pare &
M. McWhorter, C
the said county, June, 1883. Wit
of said Court, th
May 17-6w.

N

To Lien Creditors
Geo.

Henr

In Chancery—

All parties hold personal estate Cabell, by deed
wise will please fore me, at my
on the 9th day of me for receiving
of a decree enter on the 19th of A

May 17-4w.

P

RECE

The voice of God out-speaking again
To man's ungrateful ear?
Promising plenty and peace,
Garnerers with treasure heaped,
That seed-time and harvest shall not cease Till the harvest of earth be reaped?
—The Argosy.

---

Miscellaneous.

---

For the Greenbrier Independent.

The Old Lewisburg Academy.

CHAP. XVI.—SKETCHES OF DR. McEL- HENNEY'S SCHOLARS.

Capt. James, John B. and Edmund S.
Calwell.

Once upon a time—but this is to be a sketch and not a novel. We are told by Tradition that the beautiful spot known as the Green-r White Sulphur Springs was called Yoke-of Frankford. ■ daughter, ■ least; and Mrs. Eli Taylor, ■, has been dead for several

■ observe that there is no
■ either of these four origi-
■ stand alone, and seem to ■ individuality.

Eliam E. Walkup.

(say 1800) Arthur Walkup, ■, was a merchant in Lex-■-Irish blood tingled in ■ traits and habits of these
■ ordered within him a taste
■ le and agricultural pursuits.
■ was spent on a farm he had ■ "Cowpasture" river. His ■ ne unknown) was also of ■. A family of six chil-
■ them, and ■ these chil-
■ uses to families that are of
■ people, the reader would
■ at least a passing men-
■ them. Rev. John McEl-
■ in choosing ■ companion
■ ample life was destined to
■ his latest day, fixed upon ■becca. (In many respects
■ ed her prototype in Holy ■r. McElhenney was living ■ James, another of these
■ visit him and died in Lew-
■ another one, died in Rock-■a., many years ago, leav-

His wife was a sister of ■ Houston, D. D., of Monroe

Mary married ■ Metho-
■ name and residence un-
■ path she bequeathed ■ large
■ thodist church. John mar-■ Edgar's daughter Mary, ■ Jersey married a Mr. Berry
■ the last of these six was
■ WILLIAM E.,

October 22nd, 1806, while his
■ ag in Lexington. At a very
■ seven years old—this pu-
■ brother-in-law in Lewisburg ■ adematical education. Com-
■ graduated at what is now
■ Lee University, then known ■ College, and earlier still as
■ 1827. After reading medi-
■ with Dr. John Simpkins he ■ Professor in the University the startled reporter.

I had to do?"

"You have done the work, but not properly, sir."

"What's wrong?"

"Well, you wrote up Mrs. Parvenue's ball, and there was not ■ word about it being ■ brilliant affair."

"That's just what it wasn't."

"The lady, sir, takes several copies of this paper, and her husband has his printing done in our office, and ordinary common sense should teach you to understand your duties under the circumstances."

"But—"

"No excuse is necessary, sir. Then you brought in an article on the arrest of young Mr. Fresh for drunkenness. His father is one of our patrons, and we have a sufficient independence to disregard the wishes of the curious public to get an item of news when our patrons are interested in its suppression."

"I understand—"

"No you don't, for you wrote Mr. Jones's obituary without saying he was ■ distinguished citizen, of large influence, and a man of great goodness of heart."

"I thought he was another kind of—"

"You mustn't think. The independent spirit of the press is not to be governed by reportorial thought, sir. Did you think when you wrote of Miss Angeline Shoddy's departure to the seaside without referring to her ■ the charming and accomplished daughter of one of our most select families?"

"Who said she was the—"

"Do you have to hear what other people say in order to know your business? Who told you that Mr. Bottle, the councilman, was ■ rough? Don't you know his influence is worth money to the paper?"

"I wasn't aware that—"

"Of course you were not aware of anything. If you were, you might be useful to us. No, sir; you are not the kind of a man we need. We want ■ man not to know what he knows, and know what he does not know. The liberty of the press is not to be trifled with by irresponsible reporters who think, nor is its freedom to be restricted by young men who let the actual facts in a case interfere with the requirements of the occasion. You can get your pay, sir, by calling at the office."

An Old Greeley Anecdote.

The following, which is characteristic of Horace Greeley, is good enough to reprint :

Shortly after the passage of the fourteenth amendment, a movement in which Mr. Greeley had taken considerable interest, a large darkey who had called several times at the Tribune office, came into Mr. Greeley's room while he was busily engaged in writing.— Now, if there was any one thing that was ding in its principles as being in the possibility of reconstructing and making popular government ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ opposing ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ have never ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ held together ■ the true principles of lar government, ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ the American people. ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ lasted ■ little over twenty years ■ disbanded. ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ publican party, lasted ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ Whig party ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ then broke up. ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ and the Know-Nothing party were ■ and humbug parties ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ continued until merged into the popublican party and ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ashed. And there is nothing ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ present Republican party ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ cohesive ties of power ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■

The Democratic party, ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ only permanent party ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ine doctrines of our ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ton Post.

WHY ANDREW JACKSON ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ SARCOPHAGUS.—At the ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ of city trustees of Philadelphia, ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ the report of Vice-President ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ Girard College, in regard ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ Roman sarcophagus recently ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ the cellar of the college was ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ sarcophagus will remain in the ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ seum. It was presented ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ Commodore Elliott in 1833, and ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ vestigation of the records ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ of this city was made the follow-from Andrew Jackson was found with Commodore Elliott's letter him with the sarcophagus. In this Commodore said :

"I pray you, General, to live fear of the Lord, dying the dea-man soldier. An Emperor's ■ you."

The following was Gen. Jackson
"With the warmest sensation inspire a grateful heart, I must cepting the honor intended to be I cannot consent that my mortal laid in a repository prepared for a king. My Republican feelings ples forbid it. Every monument perpetuate the memory of our statesmen ought to bear evieconomy and simplicity of our institutions and the plainness of can citizens, who are the savor glorious Union, and whose virt-

It is the man who championed liquor law which is the boast of our late Harrison M. Brown, of was another of his sons. Another son was killed some forty or ago in a personal altercation with H. Ludington. He was struck on with a stone, from the effects of died. Mrs. Fitzgerald, mother of Gerald of Frankford, a daughter, Cincinnati; and Mrs. Eli Taylor, daughter, has been dead for several er will observe that there is no between either of these four origi- They stand alone, and seem to in individuality.

William E. Walkup.

says (say 1800) Arthur Walkup, pupil, was a merchant in Lexington. Scotch-Irish blood tingled in the traits and habits of these engendered within him a taste antile and agricultural pursuits. His life was spent on a farm he had the "Cowpasture" river. His (name unknown) was also of origin. A family of six children to them, and as these children cluuses to families that are of our people, the reader would for at least a passing mention of them. Rev. John McEl- in, in choosing a companion and simple life was destined to meet his latest day, fixed upon Rebecca. (In many respects embodied her prototype in Holy Dr. McElhenney was living house James, another of these to visit him and died in Lexington, another one, died in Rock- Va., many years ago, leaving. His wife was a sister of L. Houston, D. D., of Monroe Va. Mary married a Methodist (his name and residence unknown) death she bequeathed a large Methodist church. John married Edgar's daughter Mary. Betsey married a Mr. Berry and the last of these six was

WILLIAM E.,

October 22nd, 1806, while his dying in Lexington. At a very early seven years old—this pupil a brother-in-law in Lewisburg academical education. Commenced graduated at what is now Lee University, then known College, and earlier still as

Before the spray is white with May,
Or blooms the oglantine.

The Liberty of the Press.

"We haven't any further need of your services," said the managing editor of a city daily to a reporter who had been at work only a week.

"That's rather sudden, ain't it?" replied the startled reporter. "Haven't I done all I had to do?"

"You have done the work, but not properly, sir."

"What's wrong?"

"Well, you wrote up Mrs. Parvenue's ball, and there was not a word about it being a brilliant affair."

"That's just what it wasn't."

"The lady, sir, takes several copies of this paper, and her husband has his printing done in our office, and ordinary common sense should teach you to understand your duties under the circumstances."

"But—"

"No excuse is necessary, sir. Then you brought in an article on the arrest of young Mr. Fresh for drunkenness. His father is one of our patrons, and we have a sufficient independence to disregard the wishes of the curious public to get an item of news when our patrons are interested in its suppression."

"I understand—"

"No you don't, for you wrote Mr. Jones's obituary without saying he was a distinguished citizen, of large influence, and a man of great goodness of heart."

"I thought he was another kind of—"

"You mustn't think. The independent spirit of the press is not to be governed by reportorial thought, sir. Did you think when you wrote of Miss Angeline Shoddy's departure to the seaside without referring to her as the charming and accomplished daughter of one of our most select families?"

"Who said she was the—"

"Do you have to hear what other people say in order to know your business? Who told you that Mr. Bottle, the councilman, was a rough? Don't you know his influence is worth money to the paper?"

"I wasn't aware that—"

"Of course you were not aware of anything. If you were, you might be useful to us. No, sir; you are not the kind of a man we need. We want a man not to know what he knows, and know what he does not know. The liberty of the press is not to be trifled with by irresponsible reporters who think, nor is its freedom to be restricted by young men who let the actual facts in a case interfere with the requirements of the occasion. You can get your pay, sir, by calling at the office."

An Old Greeley Anecdote.

The following, which is characteristic of Horace Greeley, is good enough to reprint:

Shortly after the passage of the fourteenth amendment, a movement in which Mr. Greeley had taken considerable interest, a large darkey who had called several times at the party that has consistently and steadfastly stood by and maintained our Government as a constitutional democratic representative public.

If the Republican party shall be defeated in 1884 it will break up and go to pieces, because it has no permanent fundamental principles upon which the Government was founded to hold it together. But the Democratic party, if defeated in 1884, will still continue and cling to its principles as long as there is a possibility of recovering and maintaining popular government in this country. The opposing parties to the Democratic party have never been permanent, because no held together by the true principles of popular government, which is the Government of the American people. The Federal party lasted a little over twenty years and then disbanded. Its successor, the National Republican party, lasted but a few years. The Whig party lasted some sixteen years and then broke up. The Native American party and the Know-Nothing party were ephemeral and humbug parties. The Abolition party continued until merged into the present Republican party and until slavery was abolished. And there is nothing new to keep the present Republican party together but the cohesive ties of power and public plunder.

The Democratic party, therefore, is the only permanent party founded on the genuine doctrines of our Government.—Washington Post.

WHY ANDREW JACKSON DECLINED SARCOPHAGUS.—At the meeting of the board of city trustees of Philadelphia, Wednesday the report of Vice-President Gregory, Girard College, in regard to the ancient Roman sarcophagus recently discovered in the cellar of the college was received. The sarcophagus will remain in the college museum. It was presented to the college by Commodore Elliott in 1838, and when an investigation of the records of the council of this city was made the following letter from Andrew Jackson was found, together with Commodore Elliott's letter presenting him with the sarcophagus. In this letter Commodore said:

"I pray you, General, to live on in fear of the Lord, dying the death of a man soldier. An Emperor's coffin awaits you."

The following was Gen. Jackson's reply: "With the warmest sensations that inspire a grateful heart, I must decline accepting the honor intended to be bestowed. I cannot consent that my mortal body should be laid in a repository prepared for an emperor or a king. My Republican feelings and principles forbid it. Every monument erected to perpetuate the memory of our heroic statesmen ought to bear evidences of economy and simplicity of our Republic."

asked the minister, addressing the little boy who was standing at the door. "Yes, she's at home," was the reply, "but I guess she doesn't want to see you. I heard her just tell pa that she hated fools, and that she never seen a man yet that wasn't a fool."

"So you are married at last, Charlie. I heard that your wife is a very energetic woman and keeps things stirred up. Of course you married her for love?" "No," said the husband, bracing up, "I married her to cure my dyspepsia."

The composer who writes a song entitled "What's the Size of Your Father's Boot?" should follow it with a dirge called, "He Has No Music in His Sole." Thus, he will be enabled to make both ends meet.

When uncle came to dinner he always said grace before meat, and the little truth-seeker of five years asked, "Papa, why don't you go to sleep and talk before you eat, same as uncle does?"

You will observe this: Satan never offers to go into partnership with a bizzzy man, but you will often see him offer to jine the lazy, and furnish all the capital besides.

When the palm of your hand itches it is a sign that you are going to get some money—when you earn it.

"Every cloud has its silver lining."—The boy who has the mumps can stay away from school.

"I shall husband my resources," said the rich women when she married a poor clerk.

Ladies will never succeed as railway conductors. Their trains are always behind.

A pensive maid often devellope into an expensive wife.

Among the oldest smokers—chimneys.

Reasonable.

sun
Beams the promise of peace when the conflict is won.

SELECTED MISCELLANY.

A Disappointed Female Righter.

On the last day of registration a woman, armed with a bone-handled umbrella, walked into the Fourth precinct of the Second ward and asked:

"Is this where the men register?"

"Yes'm, and the women, too," was the courteous reply.

"Then I can register without any fuss?"

"Yes'm."

"I didn't know as they 'lowed it," she exclaimed, "but I was determined on it. When I left home I had my mind made up that I'd either register or—"

"Put your name right down on this sheet of paper," interrupted the clerk.—

"You needn't even give your age."

"I needn't! Well, sunthin' wonderful must have happened all at once. I guess you men have found out that us women are of some account after all. I expected I'd have to jaw and tear around, and perhaps use a weapon, and I'm a leetle disappointed."

"Yes. We won't keep you longer waiting, ma'am."

"Well, I'll go, but my old man won't believe it, and I'll hardly dare say it myself. I expected you'd refuse, and I'd have to jaw and—"

"Good day, madam."

She went out grudgingly, and she stood in front of the building for three or four minutes like one knocked out, and when she finally moved off she was saying to herself, "Well, I guess I'll have to jaw and tear around some more."

there were built self-esteem was only an idle run for anything of How sorry he American shoes As he stood leaning a strange more definite, English-made "pussy" appeared middle and the look. He felt and looked at coming out on

We will leave while we pass young thing who stands in waiting for us lecting her other has no other was born to be been out of a that is her loved is her al

She loved rip-snorting ture. She is those who pe toiler, and new old man.

She will to mad maelstrom his young thinks of it. an effort, stands on the peers through

Let us look peers through is low, and she wears her in little, flake while at the nas, ler in RE,

A. ll supply of
on, such as asses, 'Tages, Mat-chairs, &c. icited.

ter,
A.,
FISCHER
NS.

of tone,
y, and at so, Sheet
le prices.
promptly
c. 6-1y.

ESS.
NG Busieen conwicz will lakowicz,
is at the & Co.'s lies wish-ng in his efore pur-constantly
and most
n. Good
Feb. 5-11.

LD is just home from ng in the preliminary n of the Ohio Central will cross New river by a circuitous route
I. and come down
outh, then following distance, take the e for a connection lleghany road. The
as the weather per-ers will be put to as speedily as pos-nt.

Accident.

it occurred in Fort ounty, last Friday
e death of a worthy
It appears that Mr.
ecided on the lands 1, left his home on for the purpose of a return to dinner,
d and started in
of her mission
ad in the woods.
ow from a falling
aged about forty w and three small
th.

Deeds.

of Deeds, &c., aderk of Greenbrier
17th to Nov. 24th, Preston, commis-
for 150 acres of born and wife to and 70 poles of rict.
eckell and wife to land in Meadow
an and others to 22 acres of land,
ring district.
an and wife to H.
d in Irish Corner

and a rise of waters is expected. And Messrs.
W. H. Overholt and C. W. Carson have a fine lot of Walnut lumber on the Greenbrier river, near Mr. Jas. Bernhardt's, that they expect to Raft to Romeoville soon as they have sufficient water.

Rev. W. E. Miller is holding a protracted meeting in the M. E. Church at this place.
Considerable interest is manifested. Rev.
David Bush, P. E., delivered two very able sermons on Sunday to large and attentive congregations.

Mrs. Spencer, an aged and respected lady, mother of Mr. G. W. Spencer, died of consumption at her home near here on the 19th instant.

On yesterday evening, between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock, Mr. F. A. Renick was called from his bedside by the dread alarm of fire. Rushing from out his house he discovered that his large barn, two hundred yards distant, containing 14 head of fine blooded cows, 1 fine blooded bull, 4 calves, 21 tons of hay, 180 bushels of wheat, 800 bushels of oats, 1 threshing machine, 2 hay racks, 2 cultivators, forks, rakes, etc., was in flames.
He, with others, hastened to the burning building only to find that the devouring flames were beyond control. Access to the building was impossible, save by one door, which was overlooked in the excitement. All efforts to save anything in the building proved futile. The great light drew many of Mr. Renick's neighbors to the scene of the fire, but they could do nothing but stand and hear, with aching hearts, the roaring flames, falling timbers and piteous moans of the cattle. Two out-buildings near by, containing machinery, saddles, harness, etc., were also burned. Most of the machinery was saved, but 5 sets of harness, 1 side-saddle, 3 men's saddles, check lines, and sundry articles were destroyed. A granary, in which a large quantity of grain was stored, was saved by Mr.
Wallace Beard and G. W. Spencer, who deserve great credit for their well directed efforts. The total loss, as estimated by Mr.
Renick, is near $3,000. It is thought that the fire was caused by incendiarism. No clue, however, to the guilty party or parties.
Mr. Renick has the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community in his great misfortune.

JENKINS.

Dr. H. W. Wood delivered an address on "Sunday School Work, and its should be conducted," after which the sang the 100th hymn.

Mr. Summers, of Virginia, being open, delivered a short address, when the adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock.

Evening Session.

The report of the committee on constitution and By-laws was heard at the evening and adopted.

In the absence of Mr. John A.
Mr. S. R. Williams responded to a very amusing and instructive address.

The Vice-President being called chair the President highly entertained the Institute with a short but pointed
And then, after singing the 370th hymn, subject on this programme—"The of Parents to Children in regard to Schools"—was taken up, and Rev.
was being sick and unable to fulfill appointment made for him, Mr. responded very ably to a call.

On motion of Rev. W. H. Wood, responding Secretary was requested to the Presbytery, Association Conference, and any like organ-the other churches here represent their hearty co-operation with work.

A collection to defray expenses up, amounting to $3.81. The turned a vote of thanks to the Romeoville for their hospitality.

On motion of Rev. E. H. Phil-derson Baptist Church was ap-place for the next meeting, to the first Friday in April, 1887.

On motion of the Vice-Pres-retary was instructed to furnish brier, Monroe and Summers with a copy of the minutes of for publication.

On motion of Mr. Quinn M. responding Secretary was in-respond with the leading Syn-the State with regard to org-Institute.

The Institute adjourned ing the 114th hymn—"Blest bind," etc. L. P. FLEMING

R. A. GRAY, Sec'y.